

Pre-assessment

For each statement, say if you agree or disagree by ticking one of the boxes.

	I totally disagree	←————→			I totally agree
1. I have heard the terms “fake news” or “disinformation” at least once before and I have a general idea of what they refer to.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. When I read a social media post or an article online, I feel like I can easily tell if the contents are genuine or “fake”.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. I think that Wikipedia is a trustworthy source of information for my school assignments.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. I can easily find a celebrity’s official social media profile online, even in the midst of many others that try to impersonate them.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. I know how to perform a reverse image search on Google to check on which websites a suspicious-looking image has been published.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

BONUS QUESTION:

Can you name at least one website (national or international) that you can visit to verify if a piece of news you read online is real, false, or anything in between?

Yes: _____

No